

Sees

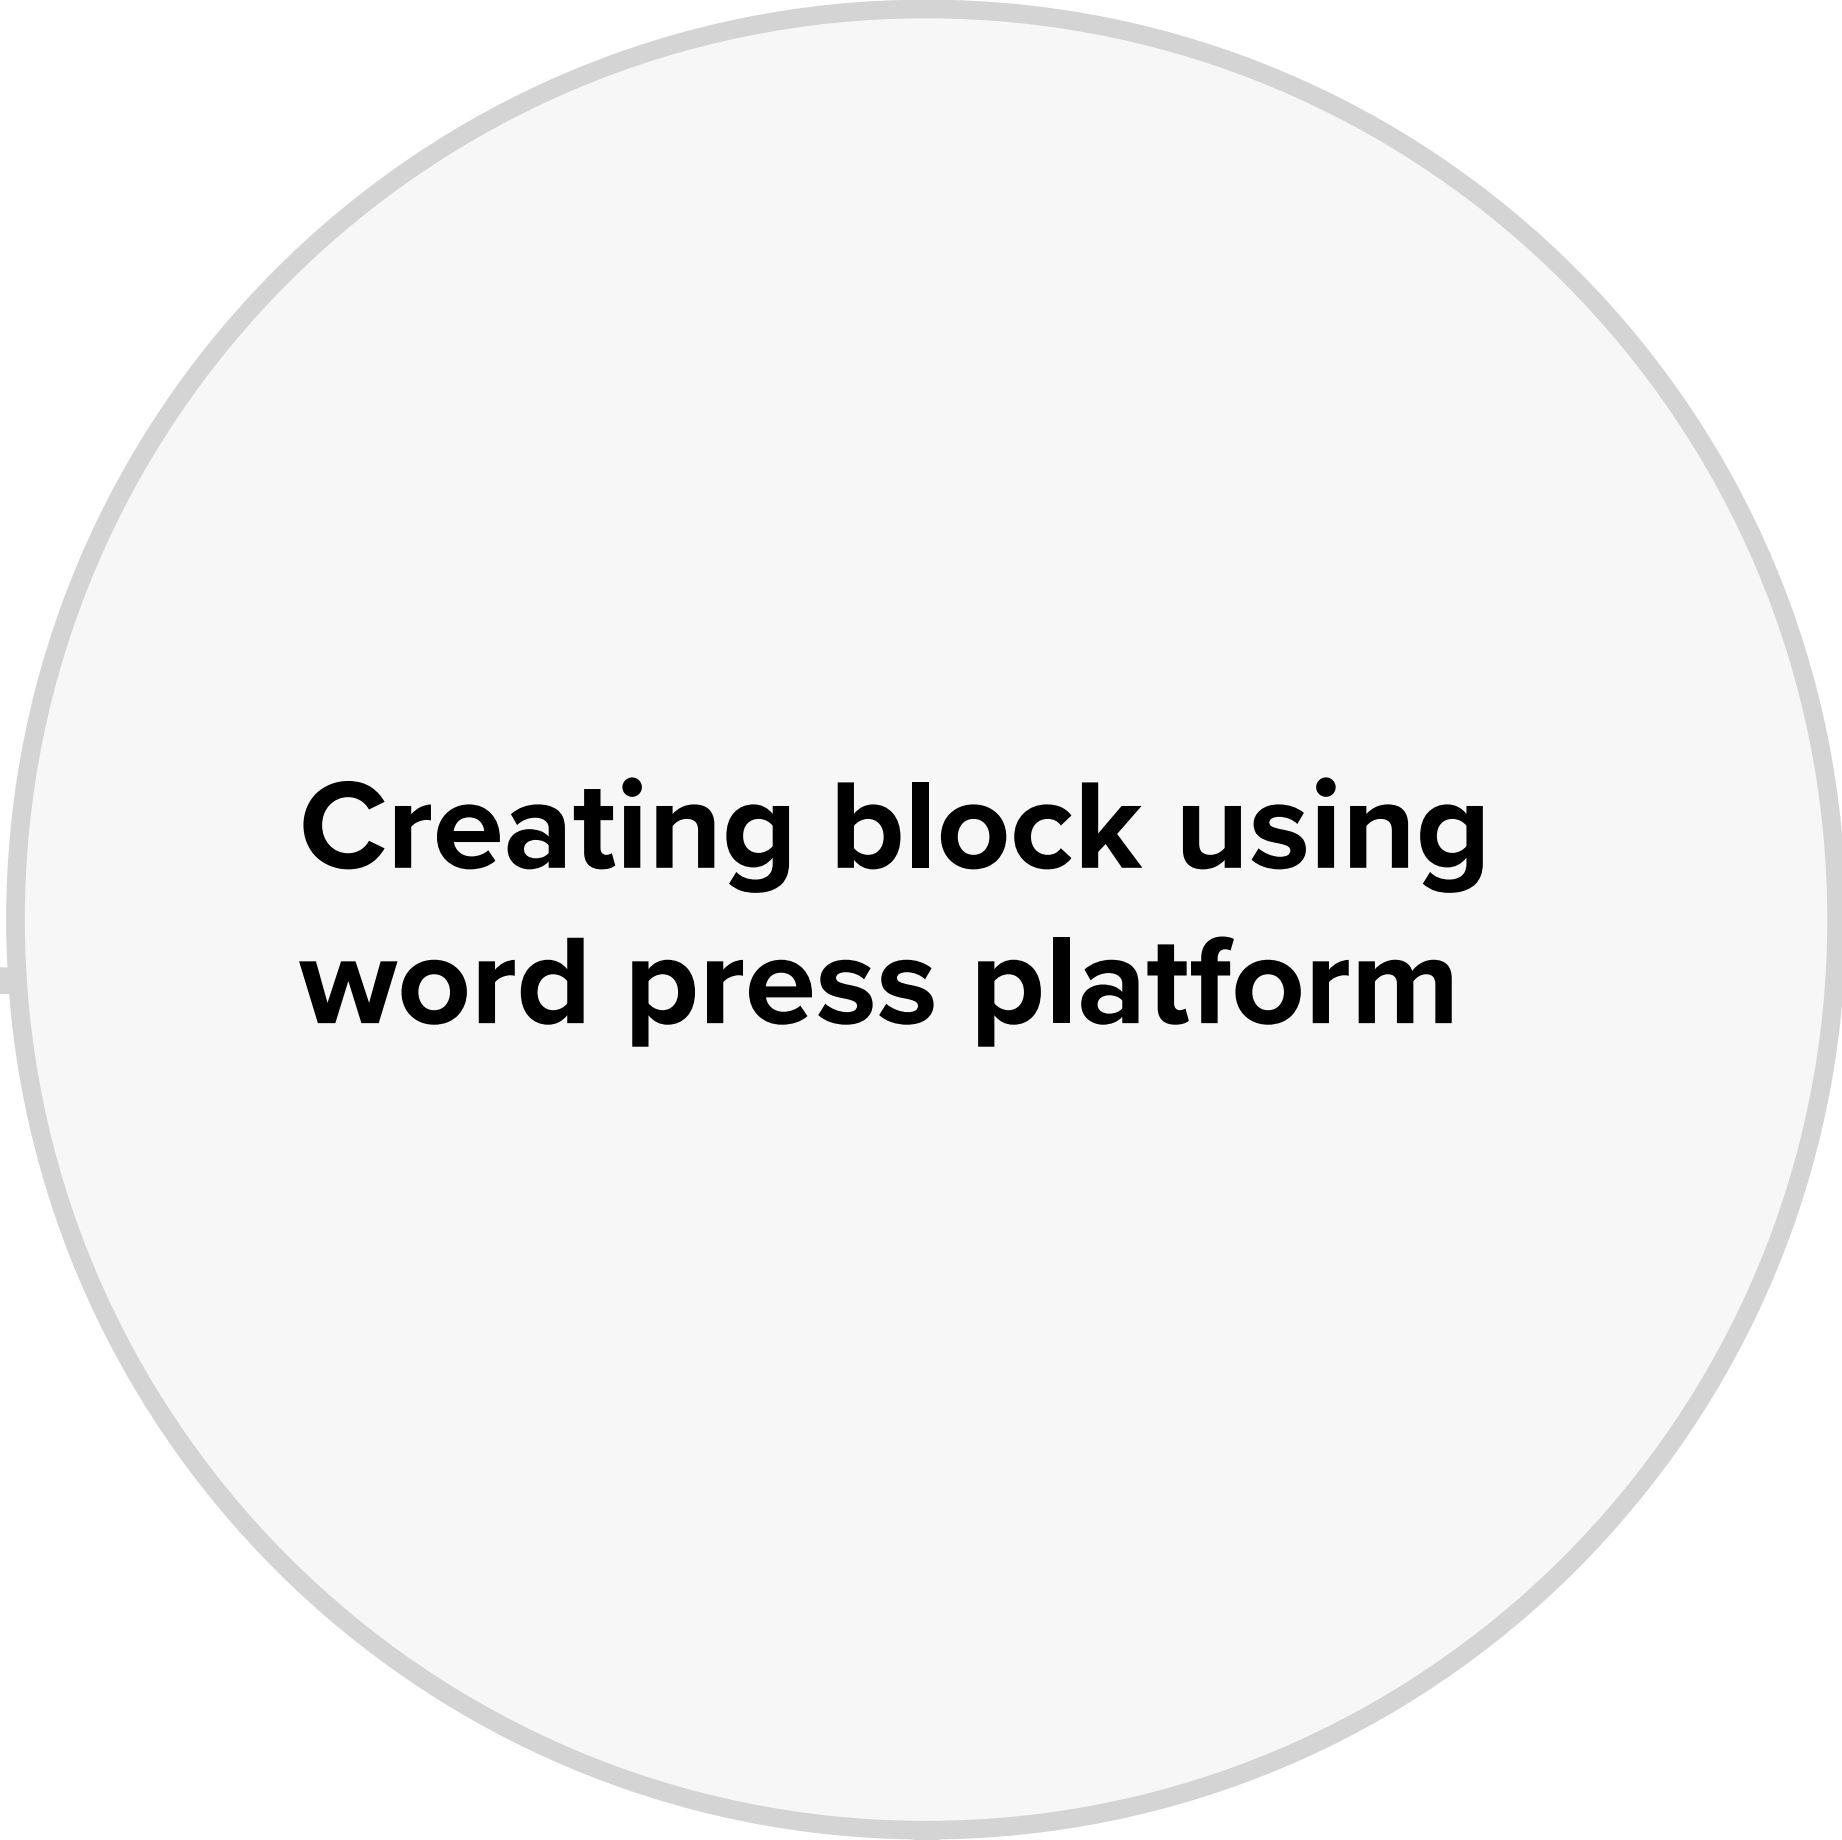

Thinks

Feels

Hear

Sees the potential of expressing ideas, sharing experiences, or promoting a business through a blog.

Observes other successful blogs and envisions having a similar platform.

Respond to comments, and actively engage with your readers to build a community around your blog.

whether it's personal, professional, or a hobby-focused platform.

Considers the design and layout of the blog, imagining a visually appealing and user-friendly interface.

Contemplates the topics to write about, considering passions, expertise, and audience interests.

Listens to success stories of bloggers who started with WordPress and achieved their goals.

Hears about WordPress as a user-friendly platform for creating websites and blogs

Respond to comments on your blog and engage with your readers on social media. Building a community around your blog is essential for long-term success

Feels excited about the creative possibilities and the opportunity to connect with like-minded individuals.

Feels a bit overwhelmed by the technical aspects but is eager to learn and overcome challenges.

Feels motivated to start the blogging journey and make a meaningful impact.